Comments

'I'm really happy with the progress my child is making'

'My daughter is really happy in the reception class and she is progressing well with Reading and Writing'

'The induction days were really helpful in settling my daughter into school but I do feel she would of managed full days'

'I am pleased to see the introduction of slips sent home re: behaviour. I feel my concerns have been dealt with and I find the school welcoming'

'A happy environment to learn in'

'Children are educated in a happy, safe and well-disciplined school'

'Parent learning evenings are a key success. Communication needs to be improved. Parent mail is a bit hit and miss.

'Communication needs to improve so that everyone gets the same message'

'My child feels safe and well looked after. His Reading and Writing has come along loads since starting at Trawden school'

'Friendly, approachable and knowledgeable Reception staff'

Following feedback re: communication, Parent Mail now goes out to all Parents (apart from 13 who have chosen not to sign up). Newsletters go out fortnightly and alternative provision is made if a club has to be cancelled at short notice.
